ABOUT DOMESTIC ABUSE SERVICES

Domestic Abuse Services – Our Lady of Good Counsel Society is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting women and children seeking safety and recovery from domestic abuse. We offer a range of programs, including a helpline that provides confidential emotional support, referrals to community resources, and assistance with safety planning; Eva's House, a second-stage transition home offering a safe haven for women and children to rebuild their lives; and Thrifters' Paradise, an award-winning, vibrant thrift store in Langley that supports their initiatives.

1

MISSION

Our Mission at DAS is to assist women and children seeking safety and recovery from domestic abuse regardless of religious denomination, race, or creed.

2

VISION

We're committed to providing support that is confidential, respectful, and non-judgmental, empowering individuals to regain their self-esteem and rebuild their lives.

OUR PHILOSOPHY OF CARE

We believe in offering a caring environment where women and children heal emotionally, physically, and spiritually after fleeing domestic abuse. We are currently developing a mentoring program to assist our families with transition.

“Live Without Fear”—Love Without Limits.

HISTORY

Established in 1995, Domestic Abuse Services – Our Lady of Good Counsel Society has been committed to providing support and resources to those affected by domestic abuse for three decades. Over the years, we have expanded our services to include a helpline, a second-stage transition home known as Eva's House, and 'Thrifiers' Paradise, an award-winning, vibrant thrift store, all aimed at assisting women and children in their journey toward safety and recovery.
